NEWSLETTER

WEEK OF APRIL 3RD

Editor: Lolly Lincoln
Office: Tower, 11th floor
Phone: 232-1555, Ext. 242
Deadline: Monday, 5PM for publication the following Mon.

HEALTH OFFICE MEASLES ALERT

Once again there have been numerous reported cases of measles in the U.S., 2000 since January 1st! There have been 10 measles-associated deaths reported. Massachusetts has not been spared from the outbreak with three cases being reported at a local college and three more cases in the general population. The Health Office records show the names of six students who are at risk for contracting measles and at risk of academic withdrawal if they do not comply with the State law by providing immunization records or getting immunized. These students will be receiving notes in their student mailboxes. If you suspect you may be one of the six, please check your mailbox or come to the Health Office right away.

Would you bid on this drawing recently created and donated by comedian Jay Leno?
See "MassArt Auction" story on page 2.

AUCTION "IN THE NEWS"

Would you bid on a drawing created by Governor Michael Dukakis? How about NBC 's TODAY SHOW weatherman, Willard Scott, or comedian Jay Leno?! If your answer is yes to these questions, you will have your chance on Friday, April 14th, at 7:00pm, in the Administration Gallery. The College's printmaking, painting, and 3D departments will host the annual scholarship art auction and sale entitled, "ART FOR ARTISTS." The sale and auction preview days are Mon-Fri. 10am-6pm, April 10-14th. CONTRIBUTIONS ARE STILL BEING ACCEPTED! Admission will be free.

NORTH GALLERY OPENS IMPORTANT SHOW

Through April 24th, in the North Gallery, two artists are featured whose work focuses on the losses and emotional affects of the AIDS virus. Michael David and James Hanson, whose exhibitions are entitled, "Bearing Witness" and "recent work," each eloquently document the human devastation and courage of friends who have been lost to the disease. This powerful exhibition is free and open to the public.

⇨ A SPECIAL THANKS:

to: Nita Sturiale, Deb McCarthy, Elizabeth Lindquist-Cock, Roy Brown, Lila Chalpin, Walter Compton, and Paul McCaffrey and all of the people who bought Rosa Parks t-shirts for boosting the subsidy fund so that low-income people can go to Washington with MassArt for the march for "wimmin's equity, wimmin's lives march and rally" in DC.

At Last. . . PAPER RECYCLING AT MASSART!

MassArt has instituted an ongoing recycling drive for white office paper and computer paper. Keep helping save all white paper! Collection will take place in individual offices; full boxes will then be moved from the offices to a temporary storage area, where the paper will be picked up by the recycling company, Earthworm. Everyday, see your nearest office for the recycling box.

"GET YOUR DUCKS IN A ROW"

Seniors. . .there is still time to make sure your academic records are in order and that there will be no problems for Spring graduation. If you have questions or concerns, please feel free to make an appointment to see Jonathan Silverman by calling 232-1555, x447, or by stopping by the Advising Center (T541.)

NEED HELP WITH YOUR RESUME?

The Office of Career Resources will present Resume Workshops on Wednesday, April 12th from 12:30-1:30pm, and Tuesday, April 25th from 5-6pm.

COERCIVE SEX - IS IT DATE RAPE?

Counseling Services will present five Counseling Conversation Hours during the semester, with the goal of enabling us toward becoming better selves. The fourth, on coercive sex, will be held on Thursday, April 13th, in the sixth floor conference room, 12:30-1:30pm. Have you ever been coerced into having sex? Did you feel violated? Disgusted with yourself? What is the difference between coercive sex and consentual sex? Rape is intercourse against one's will - it does not have to be violent. Come talk with others who have experienced these feelings.

ABOUT THE NEWSLETTER

The Massachusetts College of Art Newsletter aims to provide a communications/informational vehicle for the entire College community: students, faculty, alumni, and administration alike. We will run awards, appointments, events, exhibits and short communications, as well as a weekly calendar of events and meetings relevant to our College.

Weekly issues come out on Monday afternoon and can be picked up at: the Security Desks in the Tower and Longwood Buildings, the Student Center and in the Student Affairs Office(Tower, 6th floor.)

If you have something to share, please send it to the Student Affairs Office or the Newsletter Office(Tower, 11th floor) by the deadline - Monday at 5:00pm. If you are submitting dated material, your event must take place on or after the following Monday(seven days after the deadline.) The editor requests that all submissions be short: in the one paragraph range. Remember to include times, dates, places, and prices for all events. All submissions must include a contact name and phone number.

If you require information from back issues, please contact Jonathan Paleologos, Director of Public Information at x242.
